

Note from Debra

Oh the LORD is SO-O-O-O FAITHFUL! You know, prophets and prophetic people can get into a depressive slump like no one can. Right? Well, I have felt that slump because I am not SEEING God's Word being fulfilled as I have SEEN it. When that happens, I question that I have even heard the LORD. Shucks, I even question my gifting. Do I have a witness? And to boot during this time, the devil even had "a regular and faithful persecutor and past member of NBCF" Wufoo Rick and I (but always directed to me) to level one of his famous ridicules and slanders against us—yet again. This person that has been leveling accusations against us over the last 6 years is always very careful and consistent to specifically take time to attack my prophetic gift in every communication. So this happened at the time of my slump also! How many of you know that the devil is faithful too!! He is committed and faithful to stomp the life out of us for our destruction! JOHN 10:10A!

So, I'm crying out to God and the following came so immediate that I was scratching my head as to why I didn't cry out earlier!! The following is a prophetic word from Jennifer LeClaire (School of the Spirit) that I recently heard—and although it may seem like it is not for everyone in the Body, the Body can definitely benefit from it. At the same time, it is certainly for prophetic people in this Hour. I felt to pass it on to you through our Prophetic Podium. As well, I would strongly encourage you to go to the link and listen to the teaching Jennifer does that accompanies this prophetic word! It is dynamic!

Blessings to you all!

The Devil Doesn't Want You To Hear

Jennifer LeClaire, SCHOOLOFSPIRIT.TV

The LORD says, "I Am mantling My Seers in this season—Seers who have turned to see the voice speaking to them—to record the dreams and visions I have revealed to them and to steward mysteries I unlock to them. Through this, I Am mantling new levels of anointing into a new dimension of My grace, My revelation and My glory.

"I Am inviting My Seers to forget the persecutions of the past and embrace the next level of My calling for them. I am opening the eyes of Believers who have been crying out for their hearts to be enlightened. I will pour out dreams, visions, spiritual encounters and utterance that eyes have not seen nor ears have heard.

"I Am calling you to rise up and look again, and again and again—to be watchful in the Spirit because I will show you things to come in the Days ahead. I will show you new dimensions of My glory. And, I will show you the enemy's operations. I will show you the intents and motives of the heart.

"You can go as far and as deep as you choose to go. I am inviting you to study My Word. I am inviting you to study My heart. Your dedication to the study of the gift will unlock more and more and the mantle will cause you to operate in higher realms. Don't neglect the study of My Word. Stay rooted and grounded in My Scriptures for this is your safe-guard against deception in an Hour I will pour out a new wave of anointing on My Seers.

"Do not move beyond the boundaries of My Word, but do not reject spiritual experiences without deep study because I am going to do something in the Hour that go beyond milk. I am offering My Seers the meat of the Word—deeper revelations that many around you will not understand. But you will embrace these by faith!"

The Devil Doesn't Want You to Hear, Jennifer LeClaire: <https://youtu.be/l4EgXI8zE-I>