Introduction, editing, Scripture additions and dream interpretation by Sr. Leader Debra Jack

Introduction

Pastor Bill Johnson once made the statement: “The most important thing in life is eternity. Heaven is real. Hell is real. Nothing outweighs the reality of the Heaven—Hell fact.”

Eternity should be very sobering because it is (uncountable) existence without end, infinite time—it is the finality of forever. How long is forever?

Yet while this is true, most in the world today have adopted their own false philosophies of eternity in the afterlife in order to bring self-comfort and particular enjoyment in this life, but with little realization that they are doing so at the very risk of their own eternity (forever and ever) where nothing can be altered or changed.

There is ONE God—yet He is the Triune God representing and presenting Himself as Creator of the universes and Father; the Son—Jesus Christ; and the Holy Spirit. He has given us His Son Jesus as our Redeemer and Savior. He has given us His Holy Spirit as our Truth, Guide, Counselor, Comforter and Advocate. And, He has given us His Word (the Bible) which stands as His truth, will, justice and authority.

The Word of God tells us that every person must be born-again through faith in Jesus Christ becoming a new creation (John 3:3; 3:7; 2 Corinthians 5:17). According to Scripture, if you are not born-again—you have no hope of eternal life in Heaven. The Word of God is absolutely clear that without being born-again one is not saved from eternal damnation and will indeed live for eternity, but in the place called Hell.

It has been said that all roads lead to the same place—in other words, there are many ways to Father God and therefore, to Heaven. If there are many ways to God then He is cruel for requiring His only Son, Jesus, to die in our place that we might have eternal life. If somehow we could reach God on our own then He didn't need to reach us through Jesus. Every other religion has people reaching God. However, the Gospel [Good News] of Jesus Christ has God reaching us. There's a huge difference between the two.

The ONLY way to God is through believing in the sacrifice of His only Son—the one who died in our place for our sins, the One Who died that we may have eternal life. Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me” (John 14:6).

In the issue of eternity, we must be conscious of the fact that life and death is real and that our influence in the world around us—above every other realm of influence—should be under this one end: Every single person is going into eternity and is going to have to give an account of his or her life. Every person is going to face God and tell Him what they have believed and why they lived their life the way they did. If their answer for eternal life does not include Jesus Christ as their personal Redeemer and Savior, they will not be allowed to enter Heaven because God the Father is going to uphold the sacrifice of His Son and His own Word in the matter of eternity. Tragically and devastatingly, eternity for these will be spent in Hell.

Over the centuries there have been thousands if not millions who have had encounters with the spiritual worlds—both Heaven and Hell—and come away from these encounters emboldened to tell those around them the truths revealed to them and with great urgency. I believe that those who have had these encounters are, in fact, God’s mercy and grace reaching out to all mankind.

One of our own prophets here at NBCF, Cyndi Lampros, recently had one of these encounters—with Hell. This encounter was in the form of a dream and, thank God, it was brief, but the impact on her was nothing of such. The encounter overwhelmed her for days following. Mercifully and compassionately, the LORD Himself was near her in the dream and explaining things as she encountered this horrible and terrifying place of separation from God.

Of course, as a born-again Christian, while Cyndi believed in Hell, she came out of the experience more desperate than ever to reach the Lost. And I personally feel that was the only reason she had the experience. It’s time to bring in the Harvest in order to snatch lost souls out of the grips of eternal damnation.

It doesn’t really matter if we believe it or not, but Bible prophecy is coming to pass through end times events manifesting—declaring that JESUS CHRIST IS COMING SOON! But even if He does not—thousands of people will die today, tomorrow and the next literally being thrust into eternity without being given a choice—and no way out. TODAY IS THE DAY OF SALVATION.

God is good and it is not His will that ANY perish, but that all come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9). Hell was never intended for humans, but made for the devil and his angels (Matthew 25:41). God has created a beautiful awe-inspiring Heaven for the faithful and obedient in Christ Jesus.

“These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.” Or, “And they will depart from his presence and go into eternal punishment. But the godly and beloved ‘sheep’ will enter into eternal bliss.” (Matthew 25:46)

God Shows Me Hell

Cyndi Lampros

I dreamt that I traveled to a space that was just above HELL. It was so real that I literally felt I was there. I felt intense fear, my body was shaking, the hair on my arm stood up. Yet I knew that I was only seeing and experiencing a small portion of Hell.

Job 4:13-15—“In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake. Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair on my body stood up.”

When you understand how severe Hell is, you understand how important salvation is NOW! I am more than ever concerned about people who are lost—including those who have known the LORD, but now they have backslidden away from God. I would say that I have a greater passion for the lost, but my concern now is how to get the truth to them. They need to know the Truth, so we need to share the Truth. At the same time, in this dream, it was revealed to me that TIME IS SO SHORT!

In this tangible dream of Hell I saw its surroundings were that of an unspeakable horrifying prison. I saw two demons or satanic dragon-like creatures. They were very tall, scales covered their bodies, and they had long powerful claws. They were cursing God as they moved along because they had such a deep hate for God. In Hell these dragon-demons were forcefully and violently shoving people, striking them with their long powerful claws. Consumed with hatred, the dragon-demons showed absolutely no mercy. And, they did not fear anything.

Now, the darkness started to creep into the prison, so much so that it literally became thick with complete darkness. I found myself experiencing this darkness. God had withdrawn all the light that I had seen earlier. The darkness was so thick that I could feel it. It was so suffocating that it was difficult to breath. It made me painfully uncomfortable and even more fearful.

Matthew 8:12 (AMP)—“While the sons and heirs of the Kingdom [the descendants of Abraham who will not recognize Me as Messiah] will be thrown out into the outer darkness; in that place [which is farthest removed from the Kingdom] there will be weeping [in sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [in distress and anger].”

Matthew 25:30—“Throw out the worthless slave into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

With few words that could ever truly explain the place of Hell, I felt horrendous and complete evil and wickedness. It felt like every cell of my body was being pulled.

I was then moved to another part of Hell. In this part there was a pit of fire, which had something like hot-fiery lava bubbling up. It was so red hot, and even more suffocating—very, very difficult to breathe. There was a horrible, horrible smell coming from the pit. I realized that it was the sickening stench of flesh burning.

Because of the extreme suffocating heat and the horrible smell coming from the pit, I had to take small quick breaths because it was so hard to breathe. I looked and saw people in the fiery pit of lava burning and screaming. Their blood-curdling screams were so loud and piercing that it's difficult to explain—and it never stopped.

Matthew 13:42—“ . . . And will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Revelation 14:11—“And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.”

Revelation 20:13-15—“And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged, every one of them according to their deeds. Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. And if anyone's name was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.”

Hell is connected with and will be thrown into the “Lake of Fire” or the “Lake of Fire burning with brimstone.” Thus, at the end of the age, all whose names are not written in the Book of Life, who are currently in Hell, will be thrown into the Lake of Fire. As well, into the Lake of Fire will be thrown the beast (antichrist), the false prophet, and all those who received the mark of the beast and worshipped him along with satan, the devil himself.

Revelation 19:20—“And the beast was seized, and with him the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image; these two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone.”

Revelation 20:10—“And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are also; and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.”

Revelation 21:8—“But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

The terror and horror caused me to feel completely and absolutely hopeless for those encased in Hell because I knew that they would NEVER get out—it is an eternal [forever and ever] destination of damnation where there is only complete darkness and death. This means complete eternal separation from God Who is Light and Life.

After that, I heard the ticking of a clock letting me feel and know that TIME IS SHORT! The clock was letting me know that we [all Believers] had only a short time to let people know and help them understand the truth of eternal life and death.

I am concerned because most people have never smelled burning flesh, yet we daily or weekly have heard the sirens from fire trucks, ambulances, and police racing to attend those in trouble or where fire is behind the incident. I thought that when we hear a siren, we should immediately PRAY because it is a warning signal to us. We don't know who is hurt or who is dying at that moment—we don't know who is going to Hell at that very moment! PRAY!

I know that many people do not believe in Hell and it is not being taught hardly enough or even at all in much of the Church today. So many people are in churches that are not hearing the truth.

In the last part of my dream the scene changed and I was no longer in Hell, but in a field where I saw many white sheep. I saw very bright white wool on them. These sheep were just casually and blindly walking into a pen where their heads were being chopped off and blood was pouring everywhere.

I believe in this last part of my dream the LORD was reminding me that the sacrifice of Jesus Christ was as a sheep to the slaughter so we wouldn't have to be like the many, many sheep that were going to the slaughter. These sheep were not meant for eternal death; they were meant for eternal life—yet they were dying a horrible death because they had not accepted the sacrifice of Jesus for them.

“Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this: ‘He was led as a sheep to slaughter; and as a lamb before its shearer is silent, so He does not open His mouth’” (Acts 8:32).

John 1:12—“But as many as received Him [Jesus Christ], to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name.”

I just want to say one last thing: I was very uncomfortable telling this dream, but I quickly realized that this was a warning dream—a wake-up call for all of us. Hell is for real and the sheep being slaughtered today is real! No human was created for eternal death and damnation.

God has given Believers all a job to do: “GO and tell!” We need to believe that even though time is short, it is NOT too late for anyone who still has breath in their body! We do not have to feel hopelessness or fear. God doesn’t send anyone to Hell—again, it was never made for mankind. Hell was prepared for satan and his fallen angels (Matthew 25:41).

Therefore, Hell is for unbelievers who live by their own rebellion, who have knowingly or unknowingly sided with satan and his dark kingdom—serving him and rejecting Jesus Christ as Savior and LORD and His Kingdom.

Remember, your spirit and soul is eternal.

“The LORD is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance” (2 Peter 3:9). This is God’s will!
