

Word of the LORD: Calling the Generals

The Spirit of the LORD says, “It is Zero Hour! This is the hour at which a specific planned military operation is scheduled to start. This is the time at which specific and notable Last Days events are scheduled to take place.

“Ministry has now arrived at a serious juncture. Strong and fit Generals are needed and being called up—Generals I have already appointed for this Hour. Generals who will hear My voice and speak forth My commands. Who will move to the front lines, prophesying, decreeing, declaring in the authority what I speak to them—deafening the voice of the enemy.

“The Generals will battle to take land the devil has stolen from many and bring forth My Will through courage, authentic communication, union, and greater authority. My Generals have been given orders to build and expand My Kingdom in this Last Days wartime. They have been in a place of testing and sifting, but I loose and awaken them now to lead the way to go.

“If any General I am calling does not want to obey My orders—they are to step down or step aside. This is for their own protection and the protection of those who are in their regiment.”

“Understand Generals, you will carry an air of authority and seriousness of which many will not receive. Many have been conditioned to hear and receive only through soft and comfortable suggestions that make them feel good. But I call you to be who I have created you to be! Commanding Generals! You will work alongside and with my angelic army, who are a fiercely host to behold!

“Many lives will be saved and many brought into safety.”
